

My Vision Board

DAN O'LEARY RN RRT

Professional Goals RN to BSN

RN to BSN

In order to progress in my nursing career I must get my BSN. 8/2018

Orientation Day

I started the program with old friends. Already, some are gone. Don't take anything for granted, life can change in an instant. 11/2018

Let's do it together

I've meet new friends that are just like me. Together we can get our BSN degree. 3/2019

Professional Goals Wound Care Nurse

Gain Experience

Continue working with the wound care department at Kaiser Santa Clara gaining valuable experience.

CWON accredited programs

The Wound and Ostomy Education Program at The Valley Foundation School of Nursing offers access to specialty education in wound and ostomy care to all interested nurses who meet the criteria of enrollment. We empower these nurses to eventually improve the quality of care in people with wound, ostomy, fistula and drains, and pressure injuries.

Become a wound care nurse !!

Apply January 2020. Program starts August 20, 2020. Ends November 9, 2020. Sit for the Wound and Ostomy exam December 2020 at the testing site in Santa Clara.

Personal Goals Hobbies, Travel, Family

Fore !!

I want to find the time to play more rounds of golf. I will take up my friend Robert's invitation to play with him in Auburn in June.

Travel

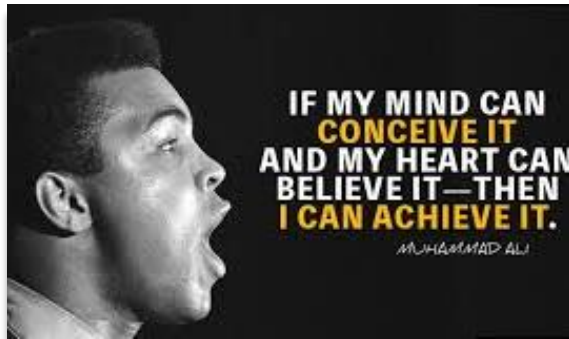

I will go to a place I've never been to, New York City. I will also go back to Peru to visit friends and family.

Family

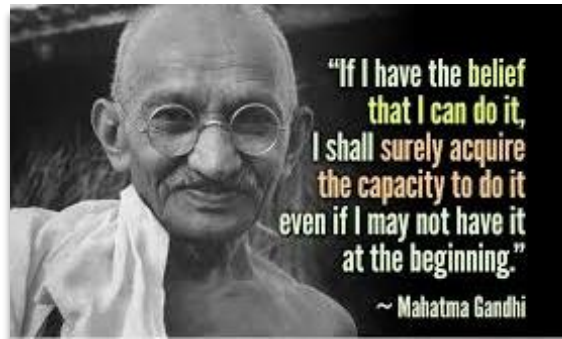

Stay focused on my family. Spend quality time with my children/wife. Be mindful of my family and the impact school is having.

My other Inspirations

Muhammad Ali

"If your dreams don't scare you they aren't big enough."

Mahatma Gandhi

Believe in yourself and you will find a way to make it happen.

Bruce Lee

This is the essence of the vision board. Turn your thoughts and dreams into reality.